

Quiz

Past, Present and Future of Law

1. Which of the following is a reason why the billable hour model is on the decline in law firms?
  - a. Document automation processes have meant that the time taken to complete work by lawyers has been reduced
  - b. Clients are increasingly putting pressure on law firms to deliver fixed fee services
  - c. It only provides for revenue generation and is no longer an adequate management system for law firms
  - d. All of the above
2. Which of the following describes technology which will replace tasks currently performed by lawyers and paralegals in the future?
  - a. Disruptive technology
  - b. Replacement technology
  - c. Supportive technology
  - d. Alternative technology
3. Which of the following is an example of cognitive computing?
  - a. Artificial intelligence
  - b. Machine learning
  - c. Natural language processing
  - d. All of the above

4. Which of the following is an advantage for junior lawyers when a law firm is modelled upon a 'diamond structure?'
  - a. An increase in job opportunities and availabilities
  - b. An increase in training opportunities
  - c. Greater access to new and innovative document automation processes
  - d. Greater profit margins

5. How will the legal profession be able to protect their monopoly in society in the future?
  - a. By living up to their fiduciary obligations and servicing society as a whole
  - b. By ensuring that they continue to be as profitable as possible
  - c. By ensuring that lawyers undertake low value legal work and avoid the use of document automation software as much as possible
  - d. Both A and C

Answers:

1. B 2. A 3. D 4. B 5. A