

Quiz

The Unacceptable Risk Test for Sexual Abuse

1. Which of the following are difficulties facing the Family Law system in the context of children under 7 about whom there are child abuse concerns
  - a. it is difficult to work out what has happened with young children
  - b. that the chances of having corroborative evidence of any kind are minimal,
  - c. the possibility of misinterpretation of touching of children for purposes of such things as bathing, dressing and hygiene care
  - d. All of the above
2. The Court's protocol for dealing with sexual abuse cases is:
  - a. The Magellan Protocol
  - b. The Malec Protocol
  - c. The Child Sexual Abuse Protocol
  - d. None of the above
3. Which of the following questions is relevant to the four-stage process of assessing risk?
  - a. Whether the child has been abused at all.
  - b. Whether the child has been abused by the alleged perpetrator
  - c. Whether a perpetrator will offend in the future.
  - d. All of the above
4. Which of the following are examples of outcomes in cases containing child sex abuse allegations?
  - a. No face- to-face option

- b. Supervised contact
- c. Finding of no unacceptable risk
- d. All of the above

5. What does the acronym JIRT stand for?

- a. Joint Investigative and Response Team
- b. Juvenile Investigative and Response Team
- c. Joint Implementation and Response Team
- d. None of the above

Answers:

1. d 2. a 3. d 4. d 5. a