

Quiz

The Privacy Amendments (Notifiable Data Breaches) Act 2017 (Cth)

1. When are data breaches notifiable?
 - a. Only data breaches that result in physical or financial harm are notifiable.
 - b. All data breaches are notifiable, whether or not it results in harm.
 - c. When a data breach substantially causes destruction to a business' ability to conduct its usual operation.
 - d. When data breaches are likely to result in serious harm to the individual whose information has been compromised.
2. Which of the following best describes a relevant a consideration for determining whether a data breach is likely to result in serious harm?
 - a. The kind or kinds of information included in the data breach
 - b. The circumstances of the data breach
 - c. The nature of the harm that may result
 - d. All of the above

3. Who is responsible for a data breach involving jointly held personal information?
 - a. The organisation responsible for the data at the time the data breach occurred
 - b. It is difficult to apportion blame in the instance of jointly held information and often it is impossible to identify who is responsible
 - c. All organisations that jointly hold the personal information will be responsible for the data breach
 - d. Only the organisation that engages third party suppliers or subcontractors is liable for the data breach
4. Which of the following is reported to be the most common cause of data breaches?
 - a. Malicious or criminal attacks
 - b. System faults
 - c. Human error
 - d. A lack of cyber security
5. Which of the following is NOT a step in a data breach response plan?
 - a. Avoid
 - b. Contain
 - c. Respond
 - d. Review

Answers:

1. D 2. D 3. C 4. A 5. A