

Quiz

Emerging Issues in Business Law: Cybersecurity, Data and Crime

1. Which is most likely to account for a data breach?
  - a. Unencrypted emails
  - b. Insufficiently strong passwords
  - c. Human error
  - d. Outdated software

2. What is pretexting?
  - a. Gathering information to implement a cybersecurity strategy
  - b. Encrypting messages between staff in an organisation
  - c. A threat actor's gathering of information about a target
  - d. Talking in person before sending a text message

3. What can happen if you have a notifiable data breach?
  - a. You can be fined
  - b. Your business reputation can be irreparably damaged
  - c. You can lose clients and staff
  - d. All of the above

4. Which of the following is true?
- a. Small firms should not consider themselves likely targets of a cyberattack
  - b. Children at home can put remote desktops at risk of a cyberattack
  - c. Mobile phones do not come under consideration in an assessment
  - d. A determined hacker cannot always be stopped
5. What is social engineering?
- a. Convincing a person to do something they wouldn't normally do
  - b. Training staff to be on the alert for data breaches
  - c. Maintenance of communications systems within a business
  - d. Convincing a threat actor of the error of their ways

Answers:

1. c 2. c 3. d 4. b 5. a