

Quiz

LGBTI+ Rights and the Legal Profession

1. Which state was the first in Australia to legalise homosexual acts??
 - a. New South Wales
 - b. Queensland
 - c. South Australia
 - d. Tasmania

2. What is the Secular Principle?
 - a. The principle that religious organisations have the right to exclude anyone whose behavior they consider to be out of line with their teaching
 - b. The principle that the state should be joined together with the church to prevent a purely secular state.
 - c. The principle that the rights of religion take second place to secular values
 - d. The principle that church and state must remain separate

3. What could have been the consequence of coming out as gay in 60's Australia?
- a. You would not advance in your career
 - b. You would be harrassed
 - c. You would be considered suspect and potentially criminal
 - d. All of the above
4. When were homosexual acts decriminalised in NSW?
- a. 1974
 - b. 1984
 - c. 1994
 - d. 2004
5. What could be considered problematic about the Ruddock Commission into Religious Freedom?
- a. None of the committee members identified as LGBTI+
 - b. None of the committee members identified as agnostic or atheist
 - c. All of the members of the committee were members of the clergy
 - d. A and B

Answers:

1. c 2. d 3. d 4. b 5. d