

Quiz

E-reports

1. How have e-reports allowed for greater transparency in the medico-legal industry?
 - a. By allowing for medical reports to be viewed by examinees online prior to them being viewed by solicitors;
 - b. By allowing examinees to access and view CVs of accredited doctors prior to making an appointment for assessment;
 - c. By re-introducing the Life Insurance Code of Practice;
 - d. By always offering examinees with the choice of 3 different practitioners to undertake a independent medical assessment.
2. In accordance with the Life Insurance Code of Practice, in what time frame must insurers make a decision on a claim?
 - a. 6 months, unless under exceptional circumstances;
 - b. 12 months, unless under exceptional circumstances;
 - c. A maximum of 6 months;
 - d. A maximum of 3 years.
3. How does E-reports ensure the privacy of medical records?
 - a. By allowing people to access sensitive documents via an encrypted portal
 - b. By only sending documents for transcription to countries in the Asia-Pacific Region
 - c. By only sending documents via registered Australia post

d. All of the above

4. How does E-reports save on costs for an examinee?

- a. By only charging examinees for reports if there is grounds for a claim
- b. By allowing examinees to choose if they wish for a report to be drafted after they have been provided medical advice
- c. By only enlisting finance companies who charge an interest rate of less than 30%
- d. By only charging a fee if an examinee wishes for a report to be issued within 2-3 days

5. What is 'Nexus'?

- a. Australia's first dedicated neuropsychology hotline by E-reports;
- b. Australia's first dedicated psychiatric assessment network by E-reports;
- c. Australia's first regional and rural independent medical assessment network by E-reports;
- d. Australia's first online medico-legal report company.

Answers:

1. b 2. a 3. a 4. b 5. b