

Quiz

Returning Injured Parties to the Workplace

1. What is an occupational physician primary area of expertise?
  - a. The impact of work on health
  - b. The impact of health on work
  - c. Both A and B
  - d. Neither A or B; an occupational physician is only concerned with health impairments caused in the workplace

2. Which of the following is usually the first step undertaken by an occupational physician when undertaking patient assessment?
  - a. Comprehensive examination
  - b. Extensive history taking
  - c. Preliminary physical examination
  - d. Psychosocial assessment

3. How does Dr Reza define disability?
  - a. The impairment or loss of function or ability of a body part, physiologically or psychologically
  - b. The effect that the loss of function or ability has on a person's day to day activity
  - c. Anatomical impairment
  - d. All of the above

4. Which of the following is an example of a person's capacity?
- a. The ability of a person to perform his or her job without posing a risk to his or her personal safety;
  - b. The ability of a worker to work in their occupation and tolerate the symptoms of their impairment
  - c. The ability of a person to work based on joint movements, strength, flexibility or endurance
  - d. All of the above
5. Which of the following could be a reinforcer for tolerance, taken into account by an Occupation Physician in assessment?
- a. Work Satisfaction
  - b. Work Stressors
  - c. Psychosocial stressors at home
  - d. All of the above

Answers:

1. C 2. B 3. B 4. C 5. D