

Quiz

The legitimate forensic purpose of subpoenas

1. Where was the primary judgement held?
 - a. District Court
 - b. Supreme Court
 - c. High Court
 - d. Federal Court

2. How much time is there normally to lodge an appeal?
 - a. 7 days
 - b. 28 days
 - c. 7 months
 - d. 1 year

3. Why were subpoenas issued?
 - a. To show that Gilmore's medical condition was not so severe as he claimed
 - b. To show that Gilmore had travelled during the period in question
 - c. To show that Gilmore was able to respond to the primary judgment and was not incapacitated
 - d. B and C

4. How were the subpoenas proven to be necessary
 - a. They were not proven necessary
 - b. Mr. Gilmore had sworn an affidavit which needed to be tested
 - c. The medical condition which Mr. Gilmore claimed needed to be proven
 - d. B an C

5. What was the outcome of the case?
 - a. The subpoenas were proven to have legitimate forensic purpose
 - b. The subpoenas were not proven to have legitimate forensic purpose
 - c. The subpoenas were found to be oppressive
 - d. Only some of the subpoenas were found to have legitimate forensic purpose

Answers:

1. a 2. b 3. d 4. b 5. a