

Quiz

Parenting Coordination

1. What is parenting coordination?
 - a. A parent-focused dispute resolution process
 - b. A child-focused dispute resolution process
 - c. A court focused dispute resolution process
 - d. All of the above

2. What is the role of the parenting coordinator?
 - a. To educate parents in how to problem solve parenting issues in a non-conflictual manner
 - b. To educate children in regard to separation and assist them in understanding the process
 - c. To provide recommendations to the court in relation to orders and parenting plans
 - d. All of the above

3. How is parenting coordination envisioned to be conducted in Australia?
 - a. By both parents attending the same parenting coordinator together
 - b. By each party attending the same parenting coordinator separately
 - c. Each party attending a different coordinator
 - d. A combination of all of the above

4. What is the main difference between mediation and parenting coordination?
- a. Mediation is a confidential process whereas parenting coordination is a non-confidential process
 - b. Parenting coordination is a confidential process whereas mediation is a non-confidential process
 - c. Parenting coordination focuses on the best interests of the child whereas mediation focuses on the best interests of the parties to the separation
 - d. Both A and C
5. How often is it envisioned that parents will be required to attend parenting coordination?
- a. Every week for up to 6 months after the date the orders are made
 - b. Only when it is required to resolve conflicts
 - c. Every month up until one year after the date the orders are made
 - d. Up to five years after the date the orders are made

Answers:

1. B 2. A 3. A 4. A 5. B