

Legal ethics and responsibilities

1. Which legislation covers the 'conflict of interests'?
  - a. Legal Practice Protection Guidelines 2008 (Cth)
  - b. Legal Professional Uniform Rules 2015
  - c. Legal Profession Act 2004
  - d. NSW Fair Trading regulations
2. What was Mr Shafron's role in the 'James Hardie' case?
  - a. IP lawyer
  - b. CFO and public prosecutor
  - c. General counsel and company secretary
  - d. CEO and legal adviser
3. Which of the following is an inappropriate example of a lawyer using social media?
  - a. To make a promotional LinkedIn post saying that he/she won a high profile case.
  - b. To post general legal advice about IP law on Facebook.
  - c. To reveal the type of evidence that is being presented in a hearing, on Facebook.
  - d. To conduct a virtual networking session with law students on LinkedIn.

4. Under what circumstances is a lawyer allowed to interpret and explain an English legal document to a non-English speaking client?
- a. If they are a professionally accredited translator.
  - b. If they have a reasonable proficiency in the language.
  - c. If they gain the client's consent.
  - d. If they gain the client's consent in writing.
5. What does a fiduciary relationship mean?
- a. A politician-judge relationship.
  - b. A employer-employee bond.
  - c. A judge-barrister bond.
  - d. A trust based bond.

Answers:

1. B 2. C 3. C 4. A 5. D