

Quiz

Freezing Orders

1. How much notice needs to be given by a plaintiff to a prospective defendant when bringing an application for a freezing order before the court?
 - a. Two weeks
 - b. Two months
 - c. None
 - d. Two weeks unless waived by the court
2. What is a good arguable case?
 - a. A case where there is better than a 50% chance of being successful
 - b. A case that is barely capable of serious argument
 - c. A case that is strongly capable of serious argument
 - d. A case where, on the balance of probabilities may be successful
3. Which of the following is not a principle for entitlement to a freezing order?
 - a. A good arguable case
 - b. Danger
 - c. Loss
 - d. Balance of Convenience

4. Which of the following is an exception to assets subject to a freezing order?
- a. The payment of ordinary living expenses
 - b. The payment of legal fees
 - c. Disposing of assets in the usual course of business
 - d. All of the above
5. Which of the following is a common ancillary order with freezing orders?
- a. A disclosure order
 - b. An Anton Pillar Order
 - c. Orders regarding restrictions on travel
 - d. All of the above

Answers:

1. C 2. B 3. C 4. D 5. D