

Quiz

The Impact of COVID-19 on Law Firms and Subsequent Hiring Strategies

1. What was the situation pre-COVID-19?
 - a. There was consistent growth in law firms across the globe
 - b. There was little growth in law firms across the globe
 - c. There was growth in Australian law firms, but little call for legal talent overseas
 - d. Australian legal professionals were competing for overseas roles in order to get away from the declining Australian legal industry
2. What has been the impact of Brexit for Australian lawyers?
 - a. There has been varying demand for Australian talent due to uncertainty around Brexit
 - b. It has caused UK law firms to cease hiring Australian talent
 - c. There has been a marked decrease in demand for Australian talent due to Brexit, which has shown no signs of changing
 - d. B and C
3. Why is there call for Australian legal professionals in the USA?
 - a. There is a perception that Australian lawyers are well trained
 - b. There is a perception that Australian lawyers have proficient experience
 - c. There are synergies between the Australian and US jurisdictions
 - d. All of the above

4. How has the Australian bonus system been affected?
 - a. Bonus payments are being delayed
 - b. Bonus payments are being split
 - c. Bonus payments are being paid as usual
 - d. All of the above

5. Which of the following statements is untrue?
 - a. Partner recruitment is as busy as ever since COVID-19
 - b. Partners are now more willing to have a conversation about the career path that prior to COVID-19
 - c. Firms are still interested in partner hiring at this time
 - d. All of the above

Answers:

1. a 2. a 3. d 4. d 5. d