

Quiz

Adult Family Provision Claims

1. What was the initial monetary calculation for the needs claimed by the plaintiff made by Paul Glissan?
  - a. $200,000.00
  - b. $50,000.00
  - c. $96,000.00
  - d. An indeterminate amount to pay for private medical insurance for the remainder of the plaintiff's life

2. What happened during the course of the proceedings to change the needs-based claim for the plaintiff?
  - a. She became ill and her expenses increased significantly
  - b. She lost her job and her need for financial assistance rose significantly
  - c. Her father moved into a nursing home and the property he was residing in became realised as an additional immediate asset in the estate
  - d. All of the above

3. What was the total of the plaintiff's claim once amendments were made for the unforeseen circumstances which took place in the course of the proceedings?
  - a. $200,000.00
  - b. $50,000.00

- c. $96,000.00
  - d. An indeterminate amount to pay for private medical insurance for the remainder of the plaintiff's life
4. What was the decision in Page v Hull-Moody (2020) NSWSC 411?
- a. His Honour dismissed the plaintiff's claim and upheld the deceased's testamentary wishes
  - b. His Honour found that the provision made to the plaintiff under the will, together with the future provision for her in her father's will was sufficient for the plaintiff's needs
  - c. His Honour upheld the plaintiff's claim finding that due to the fact that she was a person with special needs and had been all her life, the deceased owed a strong testamentary duty which was not discharged
  - d. Both A and B
5. How did the issue of disproportionality arise in this case?
- a. His Honour was concerned about the disproportionality between a claim and the costs of making that claim
  - b. His Honour was concerned about the disproportionality of the client's claim to her reasonable expectations in regard to her mother's will
  - c. His Honour was concerned about the disproportionality in the bequests to the beneficiaries under the will
  - d. All of the above

Answers:

1. A 2. C 3. B 4. D 5. A