

Quiz

Cross Cultural Perspectives in International Commercial Arbitration

1. What are some of the divides and barriers in international arbitration?
  - a. The location of where to hold the arbitration
  - b. The cultural divides and language barriers
  - c. The room dividers to be used as crowd barriers
  - d. All of the above

2. What best describes a memorial style of pleading?
  - a. The memorial style typically requires the parties to set out their claim or defence in full in their respective statement of case.
  - b. The legal pleadings of the Plaintiff
  - c. It's the terms of reference for the Tribunal Member
  - d. The document in which a party sets out its position on the facts of the dispute

3. What organisation is known as ACICA?
  - a. Adelaide Centre for International Commercial Arbitration
  - b. Australian Committee for International Commercial Arbitration
  - c. Australian Centre for International Commercial Arbitration
  - d. Australian Centre for International Commercial Admissions

4. What is known as the "Midnight Clause"?
  - a. The deadline for submissions
  - b. When the contract will expire
  - c. The dispute resolution clause
  - d. The clause used to cease a contract

5. Swee discusses witness preparation. Does she suggest that all witnesses need to be prepared prior to every arbitration?
  - a. True
  - b. False

6. In Swee's closing statement she says....
  - a. Divides you and I have things that must be talked about
  - b. Divides you and I have divides that must be bridged
  - c. You and I have boundaries that must be worked through
  - d. None of the above

Answers:

1. b 2. a 3. c 4. c 5. b 6. c