

Quiz

Aviation Law

1. What is an inherent hazard of aviation?
 - a. Altitude
 - b. Temperature
 - c. Speed
 - d. All of the above

2. What are additional hazards which may arise from aviation that operators should assess the risks for?
 - a. Conflict zones
 - b. Cosmic radiation
 - c. Space garbage
 - d. All of the above

3. What does the Montreal Convention provide for?
 - a. Family members only have two years to make a claim resulting from aircraft accidents
 - b. Damages are capped, unless gross negligence from the airline operator can be proved
 - c. a. and b.
 - d. Family members have an unlimited amount of time to make a claim resulting from aircraft accidents

4. What Civil Aviation Order provides that every high capacity regular public transport operator must have a safety management system approved by the Civil Aviation Safety Authority?
- a. 34
 - b. 82.5
 - c. 84.2
 - d. 112
5. What was the name of the aircraft that was destroyed by a missile while flying over Ukraine in 2014?
- a. MH17
 - b. MH24
 - c. MH370
 - d. MH170

Answers:

1. d 2. d 3. c 4. b 5. a