

Quiz

Benefits of using Interdisciplinary Collaborative Practice (ICP)

1. One in _____ marriages breaks down in Australia
 - a. Two
 - b. Four
 - c. Six
 - d. Three

2. A participation agreement means that...
 - a. The parties promise to act respectfully to all professionals involved in the process
 - b. The parties cannot bring their issues to Court if the collaborative practice fails
 - c. The lawyers and other professionals engaged in the agreement cannot be used in litigation should the collaborative process fail
 - d. None of the above

3. What is the role of a financial neutral?
 - a. To facilitate discussion between the parties about financial matters, but not provide advice
 - b. To give advice to both parties in regards to financial matters affecting the separation
 - c. To give advice only to one party in regards to financial matters affecting the separation
 - d. None of the above

4. What is the effect of a Family Dispute Resolution Practitioner (FDRP) issuing a certificate under s 60I of the Family Law Act 1975 (Cth) in collaborative practice?
 - a. There is no such thing as a s 60I certificate
 - b. The parties do not have to attend any of the ICP meetings, their lawyers can represent them instead
 - c. If the matter reaches the Court, the parties will still have to attend mandatory mediation
 - d. If the matter reaches the Court, the parties will not have to go through mediation again

5. What does CIP stand for?
 - a. Child Inclusive Practitioner
 - b. Collaborative Interdisciplinary Practice
 - c. Child Identity Professional
 - d. Collaborative Industry Professional

Answers:

1. d 2. c 3. b 4. d 5. a