

Quiz

Changes to Privacy Law – Part 1

1. Personal information is...
  - a. Information such as your name and address
  - b. Limited to your medical records
  - c. Any information about an individual who is identified or reasonably identifiable
  - d. None of the above
2. When is a breach notifiable under the Data Breach Notification Scheme?
  - a. As soon as a breach occurs
  - b. Only if the breach is assessed to be likely to result in serious harm to one or more individuals
  - c. Only if the organisation feels they should notify the consumer
  - d. Only if the breach is assessed to be likely to result in harm to one or more individuals
3. Who does the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) apply to?
  - a. Only organisations that operate within the UK
  - b. Any organisation in the world that markets or sells goods or services to customers in the EU
  - c. Organisations with a physical or legal establishment in one of the 30 EU countries
  - d. Any organisation in the world

4. What is the maximum penalty imposed by the GDPR?
  - a. 20 million Euros
  - b. 4% of your global annual turnover
  - c. Whichever is greater of (a) and (b)
  - d. 10 million Euros

5. Under the GDPR, you cannot rely on someone's consent unless it is...
  - a. Hidden in the terms and conditions
  - b. Informed, specific and involuntary
  - c. Provided in writing
  - d. Informed, specific and voluntary

Answers:

1. c 2. b 3. b 4. c 5. d